About the band...

The Chelmsford Community Band is a volunteer, adult community band made up of members from the "greater Chelmsford" area, and serving the Merrimack Valley. Now in its 33rd season, the band performs a number of concerts throughout the year. Our repertoire consists of perennial concert favorites, marches, orchestral transcriptions and new compositions for symphonic band. We are a non-profit organization; our funding comes from local and state grants, sponsors, donations, and a few paying jobs.

Traditionally, we present a dozen or more performances throughout the year, including our "Summer Concert Series" on Chelmsford Common - Tuesday evenings at 7:00 PM through the months of July and August. Our schedule also includes a holiday concert in the late fall, a February winter concert and a spring pops concert.

Come on out and enjoy the Chelmsford Community Band. We are available for hire for summer concert programs, music festivals, fund raising events, and a variety of occasions. You can also learn more about us at our website:
